Look out! Lent is not far away! We need to start thinking again about genuine conversion, turning back to the Lord. The first reading makes a good examination of conscience: do I invite the homeless poor, share my advantages with others? Am I at peace with my family? Do I seek to dominate by the 'clenched fist', the wounding word, the put-down that can shrivel someone up?

Christians are to be salt for the whole world. Imagine a perpetual diet of food without any tang or taste, bland and insipid! This would be the world if Christians did not spread the message of Christ, did not impart to the world the flavour brought by Christ's message. What would the world be without that message and challenge of the generosity and salvation of Christ which we profess? Yes, of course, much of the same message may come to the world through other great world faiths, but the full challenge and the full promise is in Christ. The same is true for the second image, that of light. Imagine a world of darkness, in which we had to feel our way and are never quite sure of shapes and purposes! And then what a difference occurs when the sun rises over the horizon or the light is switched on. Such is the difference that Christianity – and our Christianity – must make to the world.

What is... A Sacramental?

Sacramentals are not sacraments but are things which help us in our day-to-day life such as holy water, blessed medals and scapulars, the rosary, the Blessing of Throats, ashes on Ash Wednesday, etc. Sacramentals help to deepen our faith and their use may lead us to grace. Sacramentals such as making the Sign of the Cross, holy water and holy oils, are used in the sacraments as visible signs of the graces conferred by the sacraments.
